

"...I have grown up in the shadows of a divided America, but I have seen glimpses of one America. You have shown me one today. That is the America you must make. It begins with your dreams, so dream large, live your dreams, challenge your parents and teach your children well."

—President Clinton,
UCSD Commencement Speech,
June 1997

Live @ G.U. live@gonzaga.edu
MSC BOX #2433
502 E. Boone Avenue
SPOKANE, WASHINGTON 99258

Live @ G.U.

Satellite Broadcast of the Presidential Speech and Gonzaga University Campus Panel

convening the nation's first

White House Conference on Hate Crime

Crosby Student Center
Spokane, Washington
November 10, 1997

Welcome!

Welcome to Live@G.U. and to the Crosby Center at Gonzaga University. Today's broadcast is designed to be the first in a series about prominent social issues that affect all of us. Thank you, and to the many supporters of this event, for having the courage and the compassion to engage in active, deliberative discourse on behalf of our nation's future.

Working Schedule

- ◆ 8:15 a.m. - 8:30 a.m.
satellite test window and participant orientation
- ◆ 8:30 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.
viewing the broadcast (the presidential keynote address will precede the round table panel discussion)
- ◆ 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
Gonzaga University campus panel discussion

Campus Panelists

- ◆ Billy Barquin, G.U. Law Student
- ◆ Emily O'Brien, G.U. Undergraduate
- ◆ Alfonso Garcia Arriola, G.U. Graduate Student
- ◆ Silvia Stein, G.U. Undergraduate
- ◆ Jennifer Porto, G.U. Undergraduate
- ◆ Manny Dhillon, G.U. Law Student
- ◆ Steven Wee, G.U. Law Student
- ◆ Cheryl Jordan, G.U. Undergraduate
- ◆ Karen Boone, Spokane citizen and advocate against Hate Crime
- ◆ Karen Harwood, Dean of Student Life at the G.U. Law School
- ◆ Janet Burcalow, G.U. School of Education Professor
- ◆ Vincent Lemus, Chair, Spokane Human Rights Commission
- ◆ Bob Bartlett, G.U. Director of Cultural Affairs

Special Thanks to Fr. Don Highberger and his 6:00 a.m. broadcasting crew, to Debbie Eukrainetz and the Foley Teleconferencing Center for their technological skill and patience, to Chris Schindler and his website wizardry, to Gonzaga President Harry Sladich for his universal "blessing" and foresight, to the Law School for engaging in such lively debate, to Dale Goodwin and Pete Tormey for their PR efforts, to the faculty at G.U. for striving to make this topic relevant to all our students, to the energy, efficiency, and enthusiasm of students like Brittany Gosselin, Bryan Potratz, Emily O'Brien & Alfonso Garcia Arriola who worked selflessly around the clock, to Bob Bartlett for his moderating pace, to Marlin Clark and Sima Thorpe for their generosity of spirit and effort, to the National Communication Association for its willingness to wrestle with the issue of Race Relations in America, and to the White House for inviting institutions and organizations across the country, (Gonzaga University was one of only 50 sites selected), to participate in this historic link.

